

CAYMAN ISLANDS: The Centenary of the "Assembly of Justices and Vestry".

This issue was released to commemorate the centenary of the Islands independent administration. The design showing the heads of H.M. the King and King William IV was a first for both the Colony and the Empire. This issue was the first time that the head of King William IV had appeared on a postage stamp. The stamps were printed by Waterlow & Sons Ltd.

CAYMAN ISLANDS: KING GEORGE V—3RD SERIES.

When the 1932 Commemorative issue was withdrawn, the unusual step was taken to reinstate the previous KGV series. This 'second series' remained on sale until 30 April 1935. The following day the new definitive series was placed on sale. This issue depicted various features connected with the Islands. The stamps were printed by Waterlow & Sons Ltd.
