The large increase in revenue is principally due to the heavy Cocoa shipments and the good prices prevailing, also to the earnings furnished by the two Extensions, and the great activity on Roads and Public Works generally. 12,944 bags of cocoa were brought into Port-of-Spain by rail during the month, compared with 7,588 bags in March, 1898.

1. Insured letters will not only have all the advantages of the registration system, but if they or their contents are lost in the Post, the senders will, subject to the following regulations, have a claim to compensation :-

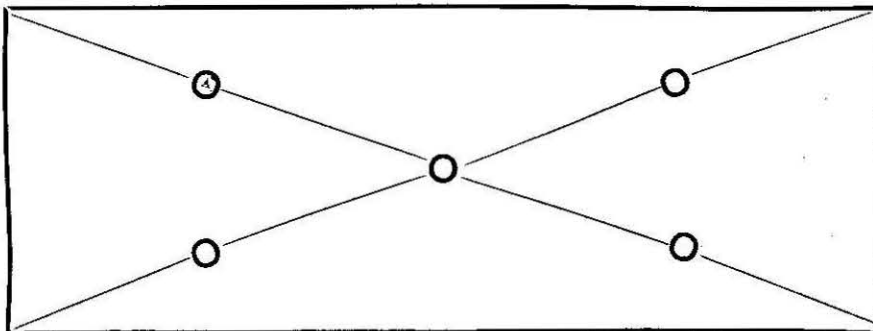

2. Postcards, or packets of "Printed Papers," or "Commercial Papers," or Sample Packets cannot be insured. The letters to which the Insurance system is specially applicable are those which contain bank notes, bonds, coupons, securities, &c.

3. Letters intended for insurance must be presented at the counter of a Post Office.

4. Insured letters may not contain coin, anything made of gold or silver, precious stones, jewellery, or any article liable to Customs duty in the country of destination.

5. Insured letters must not be addressed to initials, or in pencil.

6. Every letter packet tendered for insurance must be enclosed in a strong cover, which must be securely fastened and sealed with fine wax, in such a way that it cannot be opened without either breaking the seals or leaving obvious traces of violation. Envelopes with black or coloured borders must not be used. Seals must be placed over each flap or seam of the cover of a packet; and if the packet is tied round with string or tape, a seal must be placed on the ends where they are tied. The seals on an ordinary envelope should be placed as shown below :-

7. All the seals on a letter must be of the same kind of wax, and must bear distinct impressions of the same private device. Coins must not be used for sealing; and the device must not consist merely of straight, crossed, or curved lines which could readily be imitated.

8. If a letter tendered for insurance does not, in the opinion of the Officer of the Post Office to whom it is tendered, fulfil the foregoing conditions as to packing and sealing, it is his duty to refuse to insure it. Nevertheless the onus of properly enclosing and sealing the letter lies upon the sender; and the Post Office assumes no liability for loss arising from defects of the cover or the seals which may not be observed at the time of posting.

9. The amount for which a letter is insured (which must not exceed its actual value) must be written by the sender both in words and in figures at the top of the address side of the cover, thus :—"Insured for fifteen pounds (£15) 378 francs." No alteration or erasure of the inscription is allowed. If a mistake is made, the entry must be completely obliterated and an entirely new one made by the sender.

10. The sums payable for insurance are as follows :—

Fee.								Limit of Compensation.
s.	d.							£
0	8	12
1	0	24
1	4	36
1	8	48
2	0	60
2	4	72
2	8	84
3	0	96
3	4	108
3	8	120

11. The fee (which includes the registration fee) must be prepaid, in addition to the full postage, by means of postage stamps, which the sender must affix to the cover of the letter.

12. As few stamps as possible should be used to prepay the postage and insurance fee. They must not be folded over the edge of the cover, and when more stamps than one are used, they must be affixed with spaces between them.

13. A certificate of posting must always be obtained by the sender of an insured letter. He may also obtain an acknowledgment of the delivery of the letter on paying a fee of 2½d.

14. Letters which, although addressed to a country or place to which the insurance system does not extend, have been irregularly insured, will be forwarded as registered letters; and if they or their contents are lost in the Post, the regulations as to the compensation payable in the case of registered letters will be applicable.

15. When an insured letter is re-directed from one country to another, a fresh insurance fee becomes payable for each such transmission. If this fee is not prepaid, it is collected from the addressee on delivery. Insured letters can only be re-directed to countries which have adopted the insurance system.

16. Compensation for the loss in the Post of a letter or its contents will not exceed the amount of the actual loss, and will not be paid at all for a letter containing any prohibited article, or for any letter which has been delivered without external trace of injury and has been accepted without remark by the addressee; nor does it follow as a matter of course that compensation will be given when loss arises from tempest, shipwreck, earthquake, war, or other causes beyond control. No claim for compensation will be admitted if made more than a year after the letter was posted.

17. No legal liability to give compensation in respect of any letter for which an insurance fee has been paid attaches to the Postmaster-General, either personally or in his official capacity. The final decision upon all questions of compensation rests with the Postal Administration of the country in which the loss has taken place.

18. Any insurance effected with the Post Office contrary to the foregoing regulations is invalid.

26th September, 1899.

JOHN C. LEWIS,
Acting Postmaster-General.

Approved by His Excellency the Governor and Legislative Council on the 30th day of October, 1899.

ROYAL DANISH CONSULATE.

THE undersigned Consulate calls the attention of Danish-born residing in the Consular District to the Provisions of the Danish Law of March 19, 1898, according to which, under certain conditions, the right as a Danish-born will be forfeited by uninterrupted domicile abroad during 10 years; this law having come into force on April 7, 1898, such forfeiture cannot take place before, at the earliest, 10 years after the last named date. However, a declaration made in writing before this Consulate and expressing their wish to reserve their right as Danish-born, will interrupt the said term of ten years. When making this declaration before the Consulate, they should produce evidence of their enjoying the right of a Danish-born.
