POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK REGULATIONS.

1. These Regulations made under the authority of Section 14 of the Post Office Savings Bank Ordinance, 1935, shall be read as one with the Regulations contained in the Schedule to the said Ordinance and which are referred to hereafter as the Principal Regulations.

2. The following paragraph shall be added to Section 4 of the Principal Regulations:—

(e) The minimum deposit shall be twenty-five cents.

3. Section 6 (3) of the Principal Regulations is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:—

He shall send his Depositor's Book to the Postmaster-General at least once in each year. Every depositor who contravenes this regulation shall be liable to forfeit the sum of twenty-five cents which may be deducted from his deposits and paid into the Treasury for the use of the Colony.

4. Section 11 of the Principal Regulations is hereby revoked and the following shall be substituted therefor:—

11.—(1) Deposits may be made in the joint names of two or more <sup>Joint deposits.</sup> persons, and repayment of the same or any part thereof shall be made only on the joint receipt of all the persons named in the title of the account. In the event of the death of any joint depositor, the money shall be payable to the survivor or survivors, but the Postmaster-General may before making any payment require production of a certificate from the Treasurer of the payment of estate duty or that no estate duty is payable.

(2) It shall be lawful for the Postmaster-General to provide <sup>Addition of names to an account.</sup> for the addition of one or more names to an account already opened in the Savings Bank, provided that the person or persons whose names are to be added have no other account in their own name or another joint account.

5. Section 27 of the Principal Regulations is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:—

Provided further that nothing in this regulation shall affect the operation of any appointment duly made under these regulations.

6. Section 28 of the Principal Regulations is hereby revoked and <sup>Appointments.</sup> the following shall be substituted therefor:

28.—(1) Any depositor in the Savings Bank may, by appointment in writing (which shall be in the Form approved by the Postmaster-General) signed or acknowledged in the presence of such person as may from time to time be nominated for the purpose by the Postmaster-General and left with such person, direct that the whole or any part of the balance which may be standing to the credit of the depositor at the time of his death not exceeding one thousand five hundred dollars, be paid to the beneficiary named in such appointment.

Revocation of appointment.

(2) An appointment of any deposit under this regulation shall be inoperative so far as it is inconsistent with a subsequent appointment and shall be revoked by the death of the beneficiary named in the appointment in the lifetime of the depositor, by the subsequent marriage of the depositor, or by a specific revocation in his will. It may also be revoked by the depositor by writing endorsed on the appointment and signed or acknowledged in such manner as would be sufficient for an appointment of the same deposit.

Operation of appointment.

(3) Where an appointment has been made under this regulation and the Postmaster-General has no notice of the subsequent marriage of the depositor or of any revocation in his will or of the claim of any creditor of the depositor, the Postmaster-General shall pay the beneficiary named in such appointment, if in force at the time of his death, according to the directions of such appointment, and the receipt of such beneficiary shall be a good discharge to the Postmaster-General for the sum so paid.

Payment of debts out of appointed deposits.

(4) Where, on the death of a depositor who has made an appointment under this regulation the Postmaster-General has notice of a claim of any creditor against the estate of the depositor, and the estate, apart from the amount appointed, is not sufficient to satisfy the claim, the Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, apply the amount appointed in or towards the satisfaction of the claim, but, subject as aforesaid, any payment made by the Postmaster-General to the beneficiary named in the appointment shall be a valid payment and the receipt of such beneficiary shall be a good discharge to the Postmaster-General for the sum so paid.

Receipt of infant beneficiary.

(5) Where the beneficiary named in the appointment is an infant, if he is above the age of sixteen years, his receipt, and if he is under such age, the receipt of any person undertaking to maintain him, shall be a good discharge to the Postmaster-General for the sum paid.

Particulars to be entered.

(6) The Postmaster-General shall enter in proper books the prescribed particulars in reference to such appointment.

Made by the Governor in Executive Council this sixth day of August, 1936.

JOHN DE NOBRIGA,
Clerk of the Council.

Approved by resolution of the Legislative Council this 16th day of October, 1936.
