ORDERS FOR THE REGULATION OF TRAFFIC, TRINIDAD TURF CLUB RACES.
Section 78, Motor Vehicles and Road Traffic Ordinance.

Christmas Meeting, December 26th and 30th, 1944, January 1st and 6th, 1945.

All vehicles must approach the savannah by way of Dundonald Street, or any other street west of that street, and will enter the horse-shoe road by the Dundonald Street gate.

Cars will be parked on the savannah as directed by Police on marked lines, east of the horse-shoe road, facing northwest. The cars of members of the Turf Club displaying membership badge may be parked inside the horse-shoe on marked lines facing west.

On the conclusion of racing, cars will draw off to the horse-shoe road, and leave by the Dundonald Street gate.

Cars attending to pick up at the conclusion of racing will enter by the Chancery Lane gate.

Traffic in the vicinity of Queen's Park West will be diverted in the discretion of the Senior Police Officer on duty.

Empty taxis will rank as directed by Police and will be permitted to approach the Grand Stand entrance only when actually hired.

Persons arriving on foot should approach the Grand Stand by the central footpath from Queen's Park West by which they can enter the Grand Stand ticket gates by the new overhead bridge, and will thus avoid the danger of crossing the motor road. Facilities for parking bicycles will be provided.

Persons leaving the race course after the races on foot are advised to use the overhead bridge and the footpath so as to avoid crossing the lines of traffic.
